

Sail through the crystal blue waters of the Caribbean on a catamaran stocked with good friends, cold drinks and delicious appetizers and lunch. The excursions leave in the morning from the Sittee River and return at sunset. On the trip you can expect to stop at several cayes and the second largest barrier reef in the world where you'll be allowed to snorkel and swim. There is no doubt this ride is a little piece of heaven on Earth.